Story of the Flood of August 2016

Your written story of your experiences during the August 2016 flood and any photos, poems, art and artifacts you submit may be on display at Old City Hall Aug. 11- Sept. 22, 2018, and may become part of the Old City Hall public archives and may be shared with the Smithsonian. Stories and any other submitted items must be received by July 15, 2018. Your story, photographs, art and artifacts must be appropriate for public viewing; the judgment of appropriateness will be made by the Main Street exhibit committee. Excerpts from your story, poems, etc., may be used as part of the description of the exhibit and may be quoted by media.

This form will not be displayed with your story, nor will your phone or email be shared or used by Main Street for any purpose except to contact you if there are any questions. It is your choice whether or not to include your name within your written story.
